

Product Safety Recall

Flameless Candle Lights

(52024, 46458, 59118)

Sold between 14 December 2019 and 28 October 2021 at Australia Post and Online at <https://auspost.com.au/shop/>

DEFECT: The button battery compartment of the ‘try me’ button in the packaging of the Nice & Nifty Flameless Candle Set and Candle Light 3pk may not be adequately secured and the batteries may be easily accessible.

The button battery compartment of the products’ remotes may not be adequately secured and the batteries may be easily accessible. The products’ packaging does not contain safety warnings or markings regarding button batteries.

HAZARD: If young children gain access to the button batteries and ingest them, they are likely to suffer severe internal burn injuries, which can result in serious illness or death. Button batteries also pose a choking hazard to young children.

ACTION REQUIRED: If the product has a ‘try me’ button, consumers should ensure the product packaging is kept out of reach of children. Any consumer who has purchased the products from Australia Post or received the products as a gift should (at the consumer’s choice):

- immediately and carefully dispose of any packaging from the product if it has a ‘try me’ button, or
- return the product to an Australia Post outlet for a full refund.
